Sheriff Clarke Recognized as 2013 Sheriff of the Year

Milwaukee, WI – The Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association (CSPOA) has named Sheriff David A. Clarke Jr., as the 2013 Sheriff of the Year. The award will be presented to Sheriff Clarke at the CSPOA convention in St. Charles, MO on May 31.

In the attached CSPOA release, the organization notes:

In 1957, then U S Senator John F. Kennedy received a Pulitzer Prize for his book, Profiles in Courage, a literary masterpiece which described amazing courage and integrity by public officials in the face of adversity. It is a great honor and privilege for the Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association (CSPOA) to recognize such a man today in the person of Milwaukee County Sheriff David A. Clarke, Jr.

Sheriff Clarke said, "I'm both honored and humbled to receive this kind of distinction from my peers. Without their support over the last ten years, this would not have been possible."

Press Release

April 12, 2013

In 1957, then U S Senator John F Kennedy received a Pulitzer Prize for his book, Profiles in Courage, a literary masterpiece which described amazing courage and integrity by public officials in the face of adversity. It is a great honor and privilege for the Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association (CSPOA) to recognize such a man today in the person of Milwaukee County Sheriff David A. Clarke Jr.

Sheriff Clarke has demonstrated true leadership and courage in doing what's best for his constituents despite enormous pressures to go along with the political correctness of the day. Instead of "going along to get along," Sheriff Clarke has stayed true to his oath, true to his badge, and true to the people he has promised to serve and protect. In our estimation, Sheriff Clarke will go down in history as one of the greatest statesmen and sheriffs of our time.

Therefore, in recognition of his outstanding service and exemplary stand for the principles of American idealism, The Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association names Sheriff David A. Clarke, Jr., its 2013 Sheriff of the Year. The award will be presented to Sheriff Clarke at the CSPOA convention in St. Charles, MO on May 31.

Respectfully submitted by Richard Mack, former AZ Sheriff and Executive Director of CSPOA.
